Welcome

2027 starts with a warm welcome for all, at the Corn Exchange in Haddington.

This unique building in the heart of East Lothian, has become our home and also a welcoming arts hub for all to visit. Inside you will find our friendly and helpful Brunton team and a vibrant, entertaining and stimulating programme of live events, screenings and activities.

New for January is our Showstoppers Choir on Tuesdays 7pm to 9pm. Come along and try it, the first three sessions are free. Make a visit to the Corn Exchange your new year's resolution!

We are delighted to continue our daytime programme at Northesk Church in Musselburgh. Have a look at our Bite-Sized Concert series to find sparkling programmes from very talented musicians. These concerts are accessible to all and we offer a free cuppa and chat afterwards.

There's nothing like shared experiences to bring us together and you can share the laughter with the very funny MP turned comedian Mhari Black, farmer/comedian Jim Smith or Trigger Happy TV's Dom Joly.

Our music hits a high note as we welcome an uplifting line up of bands to Haddington, including the legends Showaddywaddy, Simon Fowler from Ocean Colour Scene, Britpop legend Steve Cradock, East Lothian's favourite Elvis – Rob Kingsley and a spectacular night of Epic Movie Musicals – to name just a few!

Football and rugby fans are in for a treat as some of our best loved sporting legends stop off in Haddington, as we host a season of entertaining and insightful talks.

You can also look forward to the rest of the year with our handy Coming Soon section or keep up to date by visiting our website thebrunton.co.uk where you can also sign up for our email bulletin.

We love your feedback, so keep in touch by emailing us at info@thebrunton.co.uk.

Best wishes
Fiona O'Sullivan, General Manager and all The Brunton Team

Venue Hire

at Corn Exchange in Haddington

Located in the heart of Haddington, the Corn Exchange built in 1854, is now a busy, modern space ideal for all kinds of events from gigs, theatre, comedy and films, to markets, festivals and community events.

As well as the main hall we have a smaller break out space that can be hired separately, ideal for smaller scale meetings or events. The venue has everything you need, including Wi-Fi, a bar, kitchen space, accessible facilities and plenty of parking.

Run by Brunton Theatre Trust (a registered charity), all hire income helps support community rooted creative opportunities and cultural activities for people of all ages.
