Corn Exchange, Haddington

Happy New Year from all of The Brunton team!

Thank you for joining us at our venues across East Lothian; Corn Exchange in Haddington and Loretto Theatre and Northesk Church in Musselburgh. We are excited to continue to bring a fantastic programme of arts and entertainment to East Lothian and 2026 is jam-packed!

Be moved with drama on our stage at the Corn Exchange. The Junkie Miracles, the story of four recovering drug addicts is from the thought-provoking script by Des Dillon. Catherine Wheels, celebrated producers of theatre for young people, bring Lightning Ridge, beautiful storytelling about the possibility of dreams.

Riotous comedy at Corn Exchange is with Milton Jones and Friends and Jack Docherty aka Chief Commissioner Miekelson, (Scot Squad). Craig Hill bounds onto our Loretto Theatre stage and then the Corn Exchange, for a kilt swingin' highland fling.

The final concert in our Haddstock collaboration is with legendary ska godfathers Bombskare, supported by Edinburgh's exciting new indie rock act Fright Years. Book soon at the Corn Exchange!

Folk music abounds as we welcome back McGoldrick, McCusker and Doyle. In March we are honoured (and a little sad) to host legends of Irish music The Fureys for their last ever Brunton concert as part of their Farewell Tour. Stunning tributes to Celene Dion and Bruce Springsteen will also raise the Corn Exchange roof!

Songs from the Last Page is a spell-binding concert at Northesk Church. Performed by acclaimed songwriter, Gareth Williams, each song takes the last lines of iconic Scottish literature and transforms them into something new, sung from the piano.

Midweek Movies at Loretto Theatre continue including Hamnet, The History of Sound and NTL's contemporary take on Hamlet.

Keep up to date on all our news on our website www.thebrunton.co.uk, sign up for our e-bulletin and follow us on Facebook and Instagram.

We look forward to welcoming you through our doors in 2026!

Best wishes

Clara Schumann – A Life in Music

Lucy Parham – piano

Joanna David – narrator

Scripted by Lucy Parham.

I, Clara tells the extraordinary life story of Clara Wieck Schumann in her own words. Drawn from letters and diaries, and interspersed with live performances of her works, and music by Robert Schumann, Brahms, Liszt, Mendelssohn, and Chopin.

Clara Schumann was a truly exceptional woman, a groundbreaking musician in her own right - not just a devoted wife to the composer Robert Schumann. By the age of eight she was dazzling audiences throughout Europe. When her husband declined tragically into mental illness and an attempt at suicide, she continued both to run the household and to make an international concert career to support the family.

Clara championed the works of her husband and of Chopin, Mendelssohn, Brahms and many others. She herself was also a talented composer, producing a piano concerto, numerous solo piano works, chamber music and songs.

Songs From The Last Page

Songs from the Last Page is written and performed by the acclaimed composer and songwriter, Gareth Williams. Each song in the collection takes the last lines of iconic Scottish literature - the novels and stories that we love - and transforms these final pages into something brand new, sung from the piano, accompanied by violin and cello duo, Sequoia.

From the melancholy mastermind of Arthur Conan Doyle's The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes to Kirsty Campbell's joyful farewell in Ely Percy's Duck Feet, this spell-binding concert captures the moment a reader finishes the last lines of a book and holds on to this feeling for just a few more minutes.
