Welcome

As the nights draw in, The Brunton is ready to welcome you with an exciting season of entertainment, new opportunities and a few developments to share.

We hope you enjoy the fresh new look of our What's On Guide – bringing you the same fantastic range of entertainment while making it easier than ever to discover what's on. We've also introduced our new ticketing system, Spektrix, making bookings quicker, simpler and more intuitive. And if you're looking for something new, we're exploring a range of new groups and classes, with details at the back of the guide, and hope to launch them in January based on community interest.

This season is packed with unforgettable experiences. We're delighted to welcome Simon Yates, best known for Touching the Void. A veteran mountaineer with more than eighty expeditions to his name, Simon shares the gripping highs and lows of a decade of adventures in Pleasure and Pain.

For football fans, An Evening with The Hibs Legends promises a memorable night of stories, laughter and insight with Steven Fletcher, Lewis Stevenson and Pat Stanton.

This September, we bid a fond farewell and heartfelt thanks to our friends at Loretto Theatre, Musselburgh, who have hosted our popular Midweek Movies and National Theatre Live screenings for the past three years. Our cinema programme will now move to the Corn Exchange, Haddington, where we'll also introduce a new Pay What You Can from £3, cinema option.

Our Bite-Sized Concerts at Lunchtime continue at Northesk Church, Musselburgh, now starting at 1.30pm, with a complimentary cuppa afterwards.

And of course, no autumn season would be complete without a look ahead to panto! Our swashbuckling 2026 adventure is Peter Pans, sure to be another flying success. These performances are always hugely popular, so be sure to book early.

Whatever brings you through our doors this season, we look forward to welcoming you and sharing another wonderful autumn of entertainment, creativity and community at The Brunton.

Best wishes

Fiona O'Sullivan, General Manager and all The Brunton Team

Deiseil Airson Dannsa

Deiseil - Dancing in Time

Sun 6 Sep 6.30pm | Corn Exchange in Haddington

An immersive, compelling journey across centuries of tradition, told through fiddle, feet, Gaelic song and storytelling. This show powerfully explores how stepdance was forgotten in Scotland and kept alive in Cape Breton, and the lifelong friendship woven into its revival here.

Groundbreaking new work from award-winning director Gerry Mulgrew, and Deiseil Airson Dannsa founders - dancer Alison Carlyle and musician Amy Geddes.

Deiseil means "ready" in Scottish Gaelic. Be ready for a mesmerising reflection on issues of culture, identity and connection.

Scottish Dance Theatre

Rotten Work & The Game of Life

Fri 6 Nov 7.30pm | Corn Exchange in Haddington

Scotland's flagship contemporary dance company brings a captivating new double bill by internationally acclaimed choreographers Emilie Leriche (US/Sweden) and Edouard Hue (Switzerland).

Rotten Work is poetic and slow burning, unfolding through moments of connection and shared endurance, asking what it means to move forward together without leaving anyone behind. In sharp contrast, The Game of Life bursts with sensation-driven movement, exploring how individuals come together, suggesting that imperfection may be the very force that keeps a society alive.

Performed in the round.

The Brunton Players

Ages 18 plus

Our adult acting group is the perfect place to unleash your creativity, no experience needed. Sessions are fun, relaxed and support wellbeing by helping to reduce stress, boost mood, improve focus, and connect with others in a creative, supportive space.

Led by a professional actor, you'll discover improv, bring characters to life, experiment with movement, explore scripts and develop new skills.

The Brunton Showstoppers Choir

Ages 16 plus

Do you love belting out favourite show tunes? Then join our new singing group, a fun feel good group where everyone is welcome. No need to read music, just bring your enthusiasm and your voice!

Led by an experienced choir director, you'll sing iconic musical hits in a relaxed, friendly atmosphere. Singing is fantastic for your wellbeing, boosting mood and reducing stress, while making new friends.

The Brunton Community Orchestra

All ages welcome

Whether you're returning to music or already playing, come and be part of our new community orchestra. We are friendly, welcoming, and open to all instruments (around Grade 5+ recommended). Our emphasis is enjoying music together in a relaxed, supportive space. Playing as a group is fun and also great for your wellbeing, helping to reduce stress, boost mood, sharpen focus, and build a sense of connection.

New Groups coming soon - at Corn Exchange, Haddington

If you would like to join one of our groups or find out more, please register your interest at BPAN@eastlothian.gov.uk and we will be in touch.

ELJam – East Lothian Youth Music Forum

ELJam is a free network for young musicians (up to age 25) across East Lothian, as well as those who support youth music.

By joining ELJam, you gain access to a wide range of opportunities - from performance slots to workshops, collaboration, and skills development. Sessions are relaxed, welcoming and a great way to try new things, build your confidence, and have fun.

ELJam Studios gives young musicians and bands a free space to rehearse, play and meet other young musicians, in Port Seton, Tranent, Wallyford and Dunbar. You don't need to be in a band to come along - whether you're solo, looking to start something new, or hoping to find bandmates, this is the place to be.

ELJam is run by East Lothian Council's Arts Service.
Find out more by emailing eljam@eastlothian.gov.uk

Taking part in music develops creativity and plays a powerful role in wellbeing. Making music can help reduce stress, boost happiness, improve coordination, and support positive mental health.
